Talk of Forming a Bowling League—Seven Teams Available—Mrs. Herman Wagner's Funeral.Preparations are being made for the formation of a bowling league in town.
Since the baseball season is over and there is not much football spirit locally, this league would arouse athletic interest. There have been a few independent matches in the past two weeks, the Warren Woolen company standing highest for the prize, having a score of 1327. There are practically seven teams which will undoubtedly enter the league, and it will not be a difficult matter to find another.
The funeral of Mrs. Herman Wagner was held at her late home, in Stafford Hollow, Tuesday afternoon, Rev.
Mr. Curtis officiating.

LICENSE RETURNED.

Adam Gajewski Arranges Matters so That He Can Conduct Saloon.Adam Gajewski, who conducted the saloon at 31 Main street for some time but had his license taken away from him temporarily, had it returned to him Tuesday. Gajewski, after the license had been taken away by Constable W. J. Hastings, went to Hartford to fix matters up with his creditors, who had secured a judgment against him. He came back to this city and has fixed things up with the constable by paying over to him a sum approximating $100 and Constable Hastings returned the license to him.
Prosecuting Agent Greenleaf, hearing that the place was open and doing business again, mooched down that way and took a peek in the place. Gajewski flashed the license on him and the prosecuting agent walked away, realizing there was no violation of the law.Gajewski desires a renewal of the license and has filed a petition with the county commissioners for one.
Accompanying the same is an affidavit to the effect that he owns the place and stock in the place, and that the license he now has was never transferred to anyone. For some time there has been a question as to the ownership of the place and Mr. Gajewski tendered the affidavit to safeguard his own interests. The matter will be taken up by the county commissioners when they meet Friday in the office of the town clerk here.

Liquor Sold at Auction.

Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock a quantity of liquor belonging to Gajewski and attached in a civil action instituted against him was sold at public auction at the sign post at the corner of Main and Railroad streets by Chauncey Macfarlane, the auctioneer, under the direction of Constable Lyman Maine, Jr. The goods comprising a small cask of wine, brown, $2.50; forty-seven gallons of 75-proof rum, twenty-nine gallons of 80-proof whiskey, twenty-five and three-quarters gallons of ninety-proof rum, brought $127; and twenty and a half gallons of 75-proof gin brought $18.

Woman's Club Musicals.

The regular meeting of the Willimantic Woman's club was held Tuesday evening in the club rooms in the Willimantic Savings institute building and was in the form of an enjoyable musical. Each club member was privileged to bring two friends, and as a result there was an unusually large attendance. The evening's program was of excellent quality and greatly enjoyed by all present.Judge Lyman Talked of For Mayor.
Judge D. A. Lyman may be induced to stand for a nomination for mayor at the hands of the republicans in caucus assembled this (Wednesday) evening. It is no secret that he would like the honor. He has many times combated Mayor Dunn in the past through the columns of the defunct Willimantic Journal, and may have an opportunity of doing so in the coming campaign. It is argued, the Judge could not be reached Tuesday to either confirm or deny the rumor, as he went up to his country home in Columbia to do a little late harvesting.

October Mortality.

fice of the town clerk, November 5, of phoid fever 3, marasmus, undernurition, tetanus, pneumonia, chronic interstitial nephritis, pneumonia, tuberculosis, dilatation of heart, cerebral apoplexy, cerebral concussion, lobar pneumonia, apoplexy, paralysis, pneumia, pulmonary oedema, chronic nephritis, fracture of femur, and cancer, 1 each; total 21.

OBITUARY.

George A. Wilbur.
Word was received in Willimantic Tuesday of the death, November 5, of George A. Wilbur, aged 76, at the soldiers' home at Noroton. Deceased was a native of Coventry. The body will be brought to this city today (Wednesday) for funeral and burial.

Going to California.

Representative and Mrs. Guilford Smith of South Windham plan to leave for California shortly to spend the winter. Mr. Smith has just purchased a handsome new automobile and intends to have it shipped to the golden state. Harry Coffey, his chauffeur, will go to California and remain throughout the winter to drive for Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Cases Not Reported.

Although there are a number of cases of whooping cough in the city, City Health Officer Dr. W. P. S. Keating stated Tuesday that none of them had been reported to him. This is accounted for the fact that the cases are not under the direct care of a physician.

Return from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cheney, who have been in Europe a number of months in Belgium and France, arrived in Willimantic Tuesday evening, and after spending a few days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Cheney of Valley street, will go to Baltimore, Md., to visit Mrs.
Cheney's parents.

$10 FOR DEAD CHICKENS

Paid by Town—But Owner of Dog Must Settle for Killing.Bunk, a pretty white poodle, owned by Miss Margaret McGilne of 35 Park street, is dead. In company with an unknown brindle Bunk took a hunting trip to the farm of Alonzo Warren, who lives on the Bricktop road Monday, and rounded up a number of Mr.
Warren's pet chickens, killing ten fine ones. Mr. Warren does not claim to being a particularly fine marksman, but fired at Bunk from a distance of fully 25 rods and brought the dog down with a shot through the heart.
The board of selectmen investigated the loss sustained by Mr. Warren on Tuesday and then took a trip to the office of the town clerk and ascertained the dog's owner. The owner is liable for the havoc caused by her pet poodle, and although the town settled Mr.
Warren's claim for damages of $10, Miss McGilne will have to settle with the town. Had it not been ascertained to whom the dog belonged the state of Connecticut would have been liable for the killing of the chickens.

The young women employed on the second floor of Murray's Boston store evening at her home, 131 Mountain formal programme of vocal and instrumental numbers was rendered by the musicians in the party. The crowning feature of the evening was a sumptuous turkey supper that was relished by all. Mrs. Snow's unexpected guests included Miss Mary Sullivan, Miss Alice E. Lemmlein, Miss Bridget Sullivan, Miss Katherine Volkman, Miss Mary Ottenheimer, Miss Rose Caisse and Miss Gertrude O'Connell, the last

FUNERAL.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Damon.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Damon was held Tuesday at 12 o'clock from the home of one of her sons, Fred A. Damon, Hartford. The body was brought to this city, arriving on the 3.03 train, and was taken to the Willimantic cemetery for burial. Rev.
Louis M. Flocken, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, conducted the committal service at the grave. Funeral Directors Elmore & Shepard were in charge of the local arrangements.

MYSTIC

Tramps Break Into Summer Cottages

—Charity and Relief Lodge Occupies New Quarters—Death of Mrs. Bertha Sparks Noble.On Monday afternoon the watchman who takes care of the summer homes of Mrs. Bertha Sparks Noble, of 131 Mountain street, on Cedar street, discovered that both places had been broken into. Just what is missing cannot yet be determined. Mrs. Noble was at once sent to St. Joseph's hospital in New York and she wired that she would come on to Mystic at once. It is supposed to be the work of tramps. As the places are only used in summer, nothing valuable is left there in the winter.

Reappointed Patrolman.

At the meeting of the board of selectmen Constable William Foley was appointed for another year night patrolman for the East Side. As the board of selectmen are democrats and Mr. Foley is a republican it speaks well for the many years he has served the town.

ing. Since the fire in Central hall block a year last October the lodge met in Odd Fellows' hall in the Gilbert block.

Drink continually destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he wants a Sunday Soaking.Mrs. Hurrayup—"I always put my clothes to soak on Sunday night. Then I get an early start on Monday and get through washing by noon. I don't consider it breaking the Sabbath, for cleanliness is next to god-liness, you know."Anty Drudge—"Yes, but godliness comes first, my dear.

And you should keep the Commandments. Get a cake of Fels-Naptha and you won't have to soak your clothes over night, and your washing will be all done by noon; without boiling, without hard work and with more satisfaction than any other way."Rough, red hands are the trial of most housewives. "I don't mind the work if I could only keep my hands nice," sighs the young woman.You will have less work and nice hands at the same time if you use Fels-Naptha soap in washing clothes. Hot water chaps the hands; hard-rubbing on the washboard swells the knuckles. Using Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water, you have neither hot water, hard-rubbing nor nauseous steam. But Fels-Naptha must be used the Fels-Naptha way—no boiling.

California, where they will spend some time looking for gold. Mr. Wolfe owns a piece of land there and thinks per-rich.

To Grade in Spring.

As cold weather is approaching it has seemed wise by the building committee not to attempt to do the grading around the Mystic High school, on the west side. The committee is busy at present getting plans as to the best way the work can be done, as something will have to be done to the steps leading from Pearl street to the school grounds. The appropriation of $1,000 will be used to the best advantage.
